

Instruments:

1) Clicking the tongue against the roof of the mouth, which changing the openness / roundedness of the lips. A low value of the curve represents rounded lips (resulting in a darker click), and a high value represents open lips (resulting in a brighter click).

2) A whispered vowel sound. A low value of the curve represents a vowel closer to “oo” and a high value of the curve represents a vowel closer to “aa”.